

Carmen Anne Putzier

May 21, 1965 - August 22, 2022

Carmen Anne Putzier, age 57, passed away on August 22, 2022 after a brain aneurysm. Carmen was born May 21, 1965 to Theresa and John Carrasco.

Carmen was a graduate of Lincoln high school and was active in Lincoln alumni activities. On September 21st, 1991 she married Kurt Putzier, and they were blessed with a daughter, Kaylee.

One of Carmen's greatest joys was watching Kaylee play softball in high school and college. Family vacations were very special to her. She enjoyed many trips to Mexico and Las Vegas. She loved dog sitting her favorite grand puppy, Luna. She also enjoyed cheering on the St. Louis Cardinals and listening to The King, Elvis Presley. Carmen was a state of Iowa revenue department employee for 37 years. Carmen's husband, mother and daughter were the light of her life. She was the glue that kept her family together.

She is survived by her husband Kurt Putzier, daughter Kaylee Putzier (Zach), her mother Theresa Garrison, and her sisters at heart - The Class Reunion Girls. She was preceded in death by her fathers John Carrasco and Robert Garrison, and her brother David Zepeda.

“ Sympathy and prayers to all of Carmen's family and co-workers! She will be missed! Carmen was the first person I had dealings with at the Department of Revenue when I came to work at our local Assessor's office 10 years ago! A kind person who was always friendly and understanding whenever I talked to her!
