“ As I have just received the latest Capital View newsletter I am very saddened to hear of Doug's passing. Although really only knew him a short time mainly from 2014 - 2017 while working at IWD build. Doug was one that that would take the time to talk each day whether at a personal or professional level. He will be greatly missed.

“ Maureen, Nick, Derek & Family -

I just learned of Doug's passing through the Newsletter at the credit union and am very surprised, sorry, and sad. Doug refinanced my mortgage and I enjoyed bumping into him in the halls of IWD for years thereafter -- always a friendly greeting, kind word, and spontaneous laugh. If I had an extra minute passing by his office, sometimes I'd just plop down on one of his chairs to chat for a few. On rare visits to the new CU, it wasn't hard to catch his eye for a quick wave and smile, as he greeted everyone this way. I will miss that and him. A joy to anyone fortunate enough to meet him.

*Wishing you peace and my sincere condolences,

“ Doug was the most loving and giving husband to my sister Mo, so in love after so many years, and devoted father to his incredible sons Nick and Derek, and proud grandfather of his precious Carter and Annalisa. He’s been a big, big brother and loving friend to me and my brother Paul and husband Davide, a loving son to my parents, such a loved member of our family and my extended family in Italy, and the pillar of the Allen family. He always had time to help, offer an ear and a laugh, and just be there for you. Nine years ago today he was the best man in our wedding - and it’s a title he has always lived up to. We miss him dearly. With love to all, Laura and Davide

“ I met Doug when I was in college with Maureen. Doug was larger than life. He was mature yet wild, care free but totally responsible and watched out for all of us.

Doug had a smile that lifted everyone immediately. His laughter and joking nature was always a highlight. He also had a voice that could stand you straight up at attention if he needed to use it.... and a voice that charmed and delighted.

He tolerated the silly girl stuff and supported and watched out for us when we were all together.

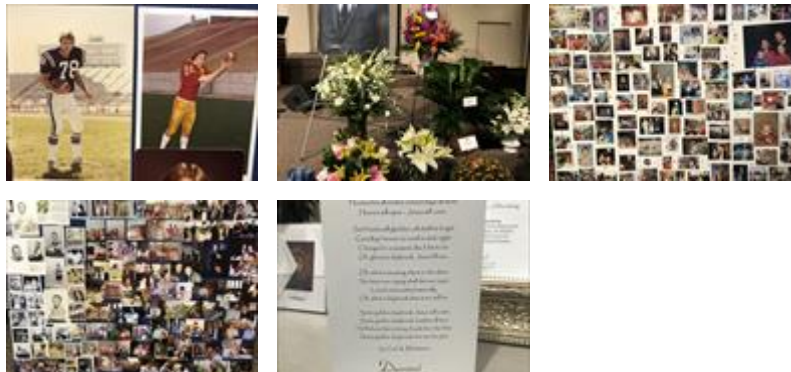

He was an amazing example to so many of us that were just getting out on our own and could choose many different paths and attitudes. Respectful, loyal, chivalrous, fun loving. He has all of that to live on through his family. I know his kids were showing those same traits at such a young age. I am truly blessed to be associated with this family.

Loving arms,
Dave and Ronda Cameron

“ I first met Doug 39 years ago I liked him instantly, and we became friends immediately. I'm glad I got to share some really great times with him. Doug valued his friendships and was always true and honorable to those who were lucky enough to count Doug as a friend. Doug took the high road in life and lived by a code of true integrity. He was a man whose word was ironclad, whose thoughts were considerate and earnest, and whose actions bespoke sincerity and honesty. I'm so glad Doug lived to see his two sons become good men, men of integrity, men with secure futures That meant everything to him. With Maureen by his side, Doug was a man fulfilled. His memory will live on.

“ It has been a very long time since I have talked to Doug and very sad to hear of his passing. I use to live in Patricia park and when to elementary school with Doug. We always played on the opposite team and he was one heck of a dodge ball player. He was a good friend and like most of us, we went our separate ways in life. Very gentle giant he was. Prayers to the family.

I always enjoyed seeing Doug at the credit union and he was always so helpful and kind. Dave and I always talked to him about ISU and how the football season was going to turn out. I remember fondly numerous evenings at your former home on 70th Street, and Doug's excitement when you moved to your new home. Our paths crossed frequently when he was with Toyota of Des Moines and it was great to catch up on Nick and Derek's accomplishments and Doug always asked for my family. Rest in peace friend.*

But seriously he was so kind and thoughtful I had gotten to know him better after high school we had both gotten into the mortgage industry at the same time. And had touched base over the years. He always spoke about his family and asked about mine a sign of compassion and over kindness A true gentle giant!!! Rest In Peace my friend*

“Maureen and Allen Family,

I am deeply saddened by Doug's sudden passing. May I first express my deep condolences to you and your wonderful family. I know firsthand that family was Doug's guiding star. In this time of sorrow and reflection, I'd love to share some moments that I will always keep with me.

Doug and I would always start our days by reflecting on yesterday's sports (be it Vikings, Cyclones, UNI, Cubs, or STL Cardinals). It was something we both had in common and found joy in (most of the time).

During pool season, I enjoyed getting the weekly update on Doug's league. I regret never being able to witness Doug's billiard skills firsthand. However, I recall telling Doug last Christmas about my son Adler getting his first pool cue. Doug's eyes lit up with joy. I wish he could have taught Adler a few of his many tips.

Finally, I would mention that Doug and I both appreciated the reward of an evening beverage. I'll be partaking in some Beefeaters Gin in memoriam of his favorite spirit.

Above all, I know that Doug lived passionately for family and God. I will forever remember his positivity, joy, and hope, which I will try to live up to. Doug was a very good, loving, kind man. I will miss him greatly.

Please extend my deepest condolences to your family. If you need anything in the days, weeks, and months ahead, please don't be afraid to ask.

Much love to you and yours,
