

Gregg Thomas Shattuck

June 6, 1971 - June 8, 2014

Gregg Thomas Shattuck, 43, of DeSoto, was born June 6, 1971 in Des Moines, Iowa and he died Sunday, June 8th, 2014.

The family will greet friends from 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. Friday, June 13, 2014 at Point of Grace Church (305 NE Dartmoor Drive, Waukee, IA). Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Friday, June 13, 2014 at Point of Grace Church.

Gregg was a graduate of Waukee High School and attended the University of Northern Iowa. He worked at Shattuck's Green Acres Sod Farms, a family business, for 22 years. He was known for his incredible sense of humor and infectious laughter. Gregg never met a stranger and loved people with a heart of generosity. He was devoted to his family, never missed a Raider's game with his son Kadin, and even learned how to do hair for his daughter's pageants. He will be remembered for his fun-loving personality and memories like winning a racquetball tournament with duct-taped shoes, naming his daughter Mickayla after his love of Mickey Mouse, and always thinking of the next best practical joke.

He is survived by his wife Amy of 9 years, daughter Mickayla (18), son Kadin (13), and a child he was looking forward to meeting in heaven for the first time, parents Tom and Jeanne Shattuck, parents-in-law Elvin and Ruth Cave, brother Brian (Leanna) Shattuck and sister Angie (Brian) Wenell, and brother-in-law Wes Cave. He is also survived by many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and beloved friends.

Gregg was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents John and Jeanne Shattuck, maternal grandparents Alice Rocha and Norman Cox.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Gregg Shattuck Memorial Fund at any Wells Fargo Bank.

“ I know this is a very difficult time for all of Greg's family. My son Jason Eaton and I want to express our heartfelt sympathies. I remember Greg as a 10 year old spanking the older guys in racketball and just being Greg. What a great kid he was and I am sure became a good father and family man. Many good memories of your family during our racketball days. Time will heal this sadness and I am sure he will always be missed. Our sympathy for your loss.

“ We are deeply saddened by this. I got to know Gregg and Amy while coaching Kadin in football. You always hear about the "bad" youth sports parents and never about the "GREAT" sports parents. Gregg was just that. (as was Amy) His/their support of our program and of our mission was something I have always had such a deep respect for. They did not just sit in the stands...Gregg was always offering up help etc. as did Amy. There was a night when a couple parents were complaining about practice and the length of the practice etc. Knowing it bothered me; out of the blue Gregg called me that night and told me to keep doing what we are doing and stay the course and please do not change. Always positive and supportive. Every time I saw Gregg he reminded me of our plan to get together and take our wives out for dinner. We never accomplished that and I regret that. To the family....we are so sorry and so sad. Please know you are in our thoughts and that we are here if you need anything.

“ I remember meeting Gregg, for my son Jacob's bday dinner! what a great guy, glad I got to know him. We invited him and Amy, and he paid for dinner, which was not necessary. Sorry we didn't get together again, so I could buy dinner. You will be truly missed. Prayers for my cousin Amy, the kids and Your Family!

“ Gregg was a true friend even as the years have passed and we have lived so far from each other. Always good for a fun "ribbing" about my Chiefs and his Raiders. He would have done anything for anyone and never asked for anything in return. I have many great memories of our experiences. I can not remember seeing him mad at anyone. Well, maybe at me once- when we went to Cedar Rapids to see AC/DC and get tattoos. He was a little upset that I did not get one that day and he did. He got over it pretty quick though, as he always seemed to do.

My deepest sympathies go out to all in Gregg's family.

“ We were fortunate to see Gregg at our granddaughter's graduation party of few weeks ago. He was a great guy and a wonderfully proud father. While it is incredibly sad for us as a family to lose him, it is also a comfort to know that Gregg is now with our God in Heaven where there is no sadness, and where we will all be reunited with him again. RIP Gregg until we meet again. Jim and Tammy Shattuck
