“ Teresa, So sorry to hear about Marty. He was always so fun to talk with and seemed to have a smile all the time. I rememeber when he was helping Bob and was sitting in the kitchen when I got upset with Bob and started to throw away pop cans. Marty knew then I was upset, as I never throw away a nickle. Marty laughed and told Bob I was upset. I know those two are sitting together and laughing about that. Let the tears go when you feel like it and hold the good memories close to your heart. Marty will send you signs as Bob has done for me.

with Deepest sympathy and prayers
