

Nyra Edith Carlson

July 27, 1933 - November 3, 2021

Nyra Edith Carlson, of Polk City, died Wednesday, November 3rd, 2021 at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines. She was born July 27, 1933, to Glenn and Edith Rogers.

Nyra enjoyed eighty-eight years of drawing portraits of her favorite people, gardening, the farm, her cats and dogs, bird watching, being in the sun, baking her famous cookies and bread, and spending time with family.

She is survived by her daughter, Shelly (Kevin) Lowary; grandchildren, Craig Lowary, Paige Lowary, Rachel (Colin) Provart; great grandchild, Micah Lowary (Craig); brother, Chuck Rogers; sister-in-law, Arlene Mock. She was preceded in death by her husband, Marion Carlson; and siblings, Lee Rogers, Mark Rogers, and Elma Tyson.

A Celebration of Nyra's Life with a time for sharing will be 11AM Saturday, November 6, 2021, at Slater United Methodist Church in Slater, Iowa. Visitation will be 9AM Saturday until service time. The family will have a private burial at Sheldahl Cemetery on a later date.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Sheldahl United Methodist Church and AHeinz57 Pet Rescue, 4002 Ash Street, De Soto, IA 50069 or plant a tree in her honor.

Great tribute. My sister's and I always loved coming out to the farm when we were little. Nyra had a way of making us feel special and welcome even during big gatherings. She will be deeply missed. Love and prayers, Chuckie.
