

Tabitha Allameng

July 1, 1987 - March 31, 2015

Funeral Services for Tabitha Allemang, age 27 , of Ankeny, IA were 10:30 am, Monday, April 6, 2015 at Snider Memorial Funeral Home in Clearwater with Pastor Bruce Phillips, Officiating. Pallbearers were Dylan Mack, Adam Pofahl, David Duff, Trent Allemang, Tyler Klaahsen, and Garrett Allemang. Burial was in the Clearwater Cemetery. Visitation was Sunday, 5:00 to 7:30 p.m., April 5, 2015 at Snider Memorial Funeral Home. Tabatha passed away Tuesday, March 31, 2015 in Ankeny, IA.

In Lieu of Flower..... a Memorial has been set up at Citizen State Bank in Clearwater for her son, Brayden Allemang.

Tabitha LaVonne Allemang was born on July 1, 1987 to Mark and Amie (Sommers) Allemang at Plainview, Ne. Tabitha attended school in Clearwater and Neligh. She graduated with the class of 2006 from Neligh High School.

Tabitha enjoyed many things, hunting, fishing, crafting, facebook, watching movies the scarier the better, and listening to music. Visiting with friends/family and playing cards - hand & foot was a favorite. She enjoyed cooking (thanks to Grandma Twila). Spending time with Brayden.

Survived by son, Brayden Allemang. Parents: father, Mark Allemang of Clearwater, Ne and dad, Doug Long; mother, Amie and Bruce Elsinger of Ankeny, Ia. Brother, Michael Long. Special Friend, Cody Cooper of Des Moines, Ia. Brayden's father, Michael Bogle of Des Moines, Ia. Grandparents, Bet and Andy Constantine of Ankeny, Ia. Several aunts and uncles and family. Sister-in-law, Amber Waterbury; niece and nephews, Sydney, Tucker, and Hunter Waterbury all of Laurel, Ne. Step Brothers: Charles and Tina Elsinger, Michael Elsinger, Andrew and Elizabeth Elsinger, and Nicholas Elsinger.

Preceded in death by grandparents, Donny Allemang, Twila Allemang. Brother, Nicholas Waterbury. Aunt, Amber Muller.

"Live for today for tomorrow is never promised"